

The video was created to showcase one of our signature outreach events, Math Carousel, which brings in students from schools across the city to participate and compete in a variety of math activities. The video was featured on YouTube, Facebook and Instagram.