

This program, which is in its first year, had a specific goal when it was introduced into our curriculum: Create leadership opportunities for LT students as well as positive interactions between special education students and general education students. This semester-long class which is currently offered to freshman and sophomore students, has created a truly unique experience for students here at LT. The purpose of this video was to create excitement about the new class offering. It had 500 views on YouTube and 1,646 impressions with 66 interactions on Facebook.
