

This process was a collaboration between school leaders and our graphic designer. They worked together every step of the way to make sure they were creating a logo that the school and District is proud of. This logo is used on signage throughout the school, in brochures, on websites, and on all school communications.