

Huntington Elementary School was built over 100 years ago. Their school logo was outdated and created using clipart. The requested the LPS Graphics Team to create a new logo, brand, and colors to help them promote the positive image of their school. A branding guide accompanied the new logo and described how to use the new assets as they communicate with their community. The new logo also incorporates features from the Lincoln Public Schools district brand.