

Montera Elementary School's Lunar New Year video is a vibrant showcase of its mission to bridge culture and language. The video features students fluent in Mandarin celebrating with dragon dances, artwork, and storytelling, all subtitled in English to ensure accessibility and highlight the benefits of Dual Language. Current families will appreciate this demonstration of their children's linguistic and cultural proficiency. Prospective families get a glimpse of the school's unique blend of educational rigor and cultural enrichment. Widely shared on social media and at community events, the video does more than just inform; it inspires. The video positions Montera Elementary School not just as a school, but as a dynamic community where diversity is integral to its identity. It promotes the Mandarin program, but its influence extends further, illustrating how academic and cultural education enhance each other. Lunar New Year traditions are actively celebrated, fostering a sense of pride, belonging, and community among students. This video exemplifies how education can serve as a powerful connector of language and heritage, making cultural traditions a vibrant part of modern educational experiences.
