

Our Michigan Day video was created to celebrate our great state of Michigan, highlight what our students are learning in school, and teach our community more about our state. The video was shared on social media and in our weekly newsletters with the target audience being our students, families and local community. The video itself was viewed by nearly 10,000 people and accomplished our goal in what we were hoping to accomplish.