

In this era of school choice, this video was created to remind our community and the surrounding communities that Fayetteville High School has more choices than any of the private or charter schools. From academics to fine arts to athletics to CTE, no other school has more choices than FHS.