

This video was created to both remind and inform our staff, students, and families of the wide variety of choices available to our students. It was released just prior to pre-registration for the upcoming school year.