

The video shows how Bradley Elementary School excels in serving special populations of students like English learners by fostering a love of learning in a welcoming environment. The video was created as part of Bradleys selection as a 2024 Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) Distinguished School. The video was published online and distributed through the ESEA website and 2025 National ESEA Conference in Austin, TX.