

The video was created to showcase a unique community service event for our schools. The video was featured on YouTube, Instagram and Facebook, where collectively it received thousands of views.