

Fire Prevention Month is recognized in October, but the White Lake Township Fire Department believes that fire safety should be a priority all year long. In January, they visited Lakewood Elementary School to provide students with an interactive and engaging lesson on fire safety.