

Our primary objective is to reach as wide an audience within our community as possible, with special emphasis placed on engaging our non-English speaking families. This flier was produced in conjunction with the Finance and Operations departments, in order to increase community awareness of and engagement with the Budget development process. It fits into a larger communication plan for this effort, and was posted on our website in various places.