

With recent safety and security changes in the district, it became clear that inconsistent terminology was creating issues over our large district. We settled on unified language, and packaged it in this infographic for stakeholders.