

We had a record attendance for this annual event, in its third year. We made sure that businesses in the area received the flyer, and multiple first responders reached out after seeing the flyer to say that they wanted to participate in the event.