

The flyer was distributed at various school/district events, given to hundreds of families. The flyer clearly highlighted key benefits such as tuition-free education, a STEM-focused curriculum, and character education, making it appealing to families. A clear call-to-action and contact information/QR Code made it easy for parents to tour campuses and apply, resulting in a noticeable increase in applications.