

This folder shows the overall look and feel of our Administrative Professionals Conference, an event that we hold annually in October and February. The folder is a key giveaway item as it holds important hand-outs that are distributed at this unique gathering, the only event of its kind in Texas exclusively for school district administrative professionals.