

The start of a school experience through Pre-K or kindergarten is a special time in a child's life. In this booklet, parents can find all the information needed to know about the Troy School District and prepare their child for this exciting chapter. From enrollment, to problem-solving and social skills, and to transportation and food service, this wealth of information helps to put families at ease, allowing everyone to focus on the joy this experience will bring.