

All eight Harmony high schools submitted video for the competition, for a total of more than 500 participating students. Districtwide winners were then chosen and shown at the College Pep Rally.