

I created this design to show a clear, concise message about why families should choose Harmony Public Schools. This design has been used in print marketing and online marketing, and stand-up banners were given to each campus to display in their lobbies and use at community marketing events. When the print ad first came out, there was a bump in website visits.