

The objective of this brochure was to provide quick highlights about our district to prospective families that explain our programs and successes. The goal was to keep the brochure easy-to-read, but highly informational. The brochure was distributed at a number of in-person community events throughout the community .