

We decided to increase our marketing efforts for Harmony Science Academy-Pflugerville and include its Early College High School. As part of the marketing, I created this design for a print ad for Community Impact. With its eye-catching design, there was an uptick in website visits and design accolades from the publisher.