

In an effort to support the District's effort to become the premier educational system in the nation, share its achievements, and honor the community's impact on students and staff, the Office of Engagement presents "Legacy Lights." It is part of the Our CCS campaign. The goal is to connect all stakeholders with the success and legacy of Columbus City Schools. The Office of Engagement work with school and community leaders to present the program to install banners at all District high schools. Fort Hayes was the first and largest installment of the Legacy Lights.
