

Each year we follow the Superintendent, Executive Team and Board Members as they visit teachers and students at several schools during the first week of school, capturing the excitement of students, families and staff.