

The Atlanta Public Schools Access APS video is a bi-weekly series that provides a comprehensive wrap-up of the district's activities. It highlights multiple schools, events, and important district news while promoting upcoming activities and initiatives. The video series aims to enhance both internal and external communications, ensuring that families, the community, and staff stay informed about key developments within the district. This episode includes Stop by Douglass's new Cosmetology Center, get fancy with Say Yes to the Dress Prom Edition, and Heart Health with student reporters at Washington! Through this video, APS aims to foster greater social engagement and keep everyone connected to the ongoing work and events that impact students, staff, and the broader community. Some social stats for this episode include 772 YouTube views and 74 likes on IG.