

The purpose of the video is to highlight the SchoolLinks website and the functions of it through real-world experience. It was largely distributed through a network of school social media channels and community activities, such as orientations. The target audience is both parents and students who seek ways to organize life decisions. It supports our communications goals by better informing our communities of available resources. The video increased SchoolLinks website traffic by nearly 300 %.