

The purpose of this video was to celebrate the groundbreaking of a new campus in a neighborhood that was new to our school system. The video also was intended to serve as an introduction of our school system to any community members -- including student families -- who may be watching. The video was featured on YouTube, Instagram and Facebook and collectively earned several hundred views.