

Harmony School of Excellence-El Paso was one of several campuses within our system named a National School of Character. This video was intended to celebrate the accomplishment and highlight the character traits that make the school and its families worthy of the recognition. The video was distributed on YouTube, Facebook and Instagram, earning hundreds of views.