

This video was created to introduce our school system to a new community, where we were breaking ground on our first campus in the area. The video was featured on YouTube, Instagram and Facebook where collectively it earned hundreds of views.