

This video, like all of our JCPS Communications videos, was set up, shot, written, and edited completely in-house. This story highlights one of the oldest high school football rivalries in the country. This video was extremely popular on our social media channels and brought out a lot of school spirit throughout the District. Even families who have no connection to these two schools still weigh in on the rivalry.