

Throughout the 2023-24 school year, employees, students, and community members were honored with Lead Strong bracelets for their dedication to building a strong future for STPPS. This video takes a look back at the Lead Strong Award and gives the perspective of what it meant to the honorees themselves.