

Our district superintendent Dr. Michelle Rodriguez wanted an art piece that exemplified her new school year district theme: “Imagine the Possibilities.” In turn, three district art instructors and a graduate student created a wonderful mural that now hangs inside our district headquarters. We followed the instructors for more than six months beginning last summer from start to finish to showcase their work to our community. Here’s the documented process of their work.