

We want parents to know what they could look forward to and what they could expect from their superintendent. safety is on the minds of many and in this video we ask about the enhancements. Superintendent Rodriguez also discusses equity and care for all students. In this Video we show the focus of the new school year where every child deserves a world-class education.