

The United ISD Student Newscast is a half hour program that airs on the local NBC, CBS, and FOX news channels. The local television stations give our school district free weekly air time (weekend mornings), to air programs which highlight our school district. The student news program highlights our schools, students, and employees and informs the public about all the positive things happening in our district.