

These two videos were utilized during our Sandusky High School Black History Month program to showcase what our students and staff feel like 'Black is' to them. This video series was impactful in the program timeline, making a real connection with our students, staff, and community members. We were then able to utilize both videos as a series release on our district Facebook and TikTok pages. These videos were emotional and hit the heart strings with our community.