

Thursday Thoughts is a weekly series of short videos featuring Superintendent of Schools Dr. Mark Bedell highlighting multiple facets of our school system of interest to our community. Topics can be as varied as current school system events, news events affecting students and families, or specific curricular programs.