

The Golden Spotlight is the Nanuet Union Free School Districts monthly video series showcasing events, curriculum, and achievements across the Rockland County community. Each episode features documentary-style storytelling paired with dynamic b-roll, edited in a modern, attention-grabbing style. Topics are selected by district leadership and have included school improvements, student achievements, and social-emotional learning initiatives. Posted on YouTube and embedded in the districts monthly Nanuet News e-newsletter, The Golden Spotlight is also shared via ParentSquare, the district website, Facebook, and Instagram effectively reaching the broader Nanuet school community. The series has received widespread praise, including recognition during Board of Education meetings, with feedback consistently highlighting its role in showcasing the districts many positive stories.
