

Three Ways to Take Advantage of the Many NSPRA Benefits

Payments are in U.S. funds.

Memberships

NSPRA professional members are eligible to vote and run for office, are eligible for the accreditation process, and receive all materials and benefits. Associate members receive fewer benefits and are not eligible to vote or run for office.

- Individual professional membership . . . . . $285
- Individual associate membership . . . . . $195

Subscriptions

Some school districts have policies that prohibit individual memberships in associations. NSPRA offers a subscription service (the subscription is in the school district name) with the benefits of membership.

- School district professional subscription . . . . . $285
- School district associate subscription . . . . . $195

Institutional Memberships

NSPRA institutional memberships are an economical way to provide membership for more colleagues in your school district. Choose from two "packages:"

- 2 professional memberships . . . . . $555 (save $15)
- 1 professional and 1 associate membership . . . . . $465 (save $15)

You can add an additional professional membership for only $270, or additional associate membership for only $180
